

DEJAN OSTOJIC

THE WORLD BANK

Lead Specialist

Energy and Extractives Global Practice

---

Dr. Dejan Ostojic has diverse experience in energy and infrastructure development in Europe and Central Asia, China, South East Asia, Middle East, Latin America and USA. Currently, he oversees the World Bank energy program in Central and Eastern Europe, leads policy dialog and advisory support on energy sector reforms and development, including preparation and implementation of investment operations and project financing for public and private projects.

Prior to joining the World Bank, Dr. Ostojic was Area Manger and partner at Harza Engineering Company in Chicago, USA, visiting Fulbright Scholar at Purdue University, USA, and Assistant Professor at the University of Belgrade, Serbia. He has authored/ co-authored more than 30 technical papers and three books in the field of energy and power systems. He is a recipient of the World Bank President's Award for Excellence in 2017.